

GOD & COUNTRY

Students learn to serve others and honor their Christian faith. A common theme within the curriculum is putting others before yourself.

Awards and Recognition

Student achievement is awarded by the unit and local military organizations such as Veterans of Foreign Wars, Military Order of the Purple Heart, and Daughters of the American Revolution.

1 Only school in Charlotte

United Faith Christian Academy is the only school in the Charlotte area to offer CJROTC. Set yourself apart.

2 Peer Group

CJROTC students are diverse in strengths and interests, but share a desire for self-discipline and motivation.

What is a JROTC Class Like?

The JROTC combines interesting classroom instruction with opportunities to serve the school and community. Students participate in extra-curricular activities, enjoy social events, and can earn leadership positions.

3 Extra-curricular Activities

A common denominator for CJROTC students is the level of participation in school sponsored extra-curricular activities and community service.

4 Scholarship & Rank

CJROTC students can receive scholarships to college. Students seeking to enter the military are eligible for increased rank & pay.

For Middle & High School Students

Students must be in 8th -12th grade to enroll. Leadership positions are available to both genders equally. Course sequence is progressive and builds upon the previous year's curriculum.

Why choose CJROTC:

- Develop citizenship and patriotism.
- Develop self-reliance, leadership, discipline, and responsiveness to authority.
- Improve verbal and written communication skills.
- Develop an appreciation of the importance of physical fitness.
- Increase respect for the role of the U.S. Armed Forces in support of national objectives.
